Excerpt: . in this work the names of the flowers and figures used as types of idea and sentiment are not classified; and it requires a tedious search to glean much information in the direction indicated, from such sources. The poetical Language of flowers gives some little insight into the matter; but its definitions are too vague and general to afford much that is practically available in the way of instruction. For the sake of illustration, we quote: In Eastern lands they talk in flowers, And they tell in a garland their loves and cares; Each blossom that blooms in their garden bowers, On its leaves a mystic language bears. # # # # Innocence dwells in the lily s bell, Pure as a heart in its native heaven; Fame s bright star and glories swell By the glossy leaf of the bay are given....
