The Fort Terry football team finished in the lead of the District League. The Fortythird Company is sorry to lose its Captain, II. S. Kerrick, who has been transferred to the unassigned list and goes to Fort H. G. Wright as District Adjutant. The enlisted men of Fort Howard, Md. , have organized among themselves a social club. The club organized in the usual manner for the purpose of furthering social feeling among the enlisted men of the Post, and also to teach dancing to those members unable to do so. The interest taken seems to be unanimous, and in all probability the club will prosper and carry out the purposes for which it was organized. The Post Volunteer Band is improving and progressing as time goes on. The sum of 13, 900 was drawn on December 15...
