By Dennis Van Wey

Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Sergeant First Class Pedro Marrero was with the 3rd Brigade, 1st Infantry Division in Iraq from February 2004 until February 2005. He worked in the brigade tactical operations center (TOC) as the NCO in charge of the TOC and as a battle NCO. His duty location was in Ba qubah. Predeployment training involved being trained in Germany while preparing to operate in a forward operating base by tracking and reporting events to control the battlefield. He mentions how his unit also received an ample amount of cultural awareness training. Marrero then discusses differences he noticed between Active and Reserve soldiers. He makes the following statement, Generally speaking, the active duty soldiers were way more prepared and more aware of the situation. They were into it. I won t say everybody, but generally speaking, the discipline was far better. Marrero says that his unit s anticipated mission was to finish Phase III and then go into Phase IV, but instead they had to keep going back and forth. He also discusses corruption, or a variant of espionage that the...
