Visit us online at - - Come on, let's make a snow man! cried Bert Bobbsey, as he ran about in the white drifts of snow that were piled high in the yard in front of the house. That'll be lots of fun! chimed in Freddie Bobbsey, who was Bert's small brother. We can make a man, and then throw snowballs at him, and he won't care a bit; will he, Bert? No, I guess a snow man doesn't care how many times you hit him with snowballs, laughed the older boy, as he tried to catch a dog that was leaping about in the drifts, barking for joy. The more snowballs you throw at a snow man the bigger he gets, said Bert.
