Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: .no man living ever saw in this country just the conditions existing today in the business world. We have annually, in the past, received hundreds of thousands of immigrants into this country to swell the ranks of labor. Since the war began, not only has this stream ceased, but some hundreds of thousands of able bodied men have left our shores to join the armies of Russia, Greece, Italy and other countries. On top of this labor shortage, has come a flood of war and domestic orders such as we never saw before at one time and every industry in the country is rushed. Manufacturers who are wise will figure on this condition, will plan ahead on account of this congestion and even then he will have trouble enough. But, any way, order in sufficient quantities to keep the wheels moving. Have you ever tried to...
