Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from John Sherman [Mr. Harn is a native Ohioan, having been born at Wooster where he was trained in the printing and journalistic profession. When a mere lad he became the Columbus correspondent for the Cincinnati Times-Chronicle, now the Times-Star. Later he became one of the owners of the Mansfield Herald, with the business and editorial control of which he was connected for many, years. Under President McKinley Mr. Harn was agent of the United States Internal Revenue Commission in Ohio and several southern states. Early in life Mr. Harn became acquainted with John Sherman, this acquaintance grew into an intimate friendship that lasted till the death of the Senator. Mr. Harn s article is unique in manner and gives some interesting side-lights upon the character of the great statesman and financier. - Editor.] John Sherman was a Senator in Congress a longer time than any other person. He was elected to the Senate a greater number of times than any other person. Without excepting Thomas Hart Benton, he was a member of the senate longer than any other person. Benton was elected five consecutive times, but served a few days less than thirty years. Sherman was in attendance at the sessions of the Senate a greater number of days than any other person. He voted on a larger number of proposed federal laws than any other person. He attended the daily sessions of the upper chamber as dutifully as the ambitious school boy attended school; his absence excited query and comment.
