Excerpt: . . . critical to increasing the relevance and therefore the usefulness of performance information to their day-to-day activities. The practice of building analytical capacity to use performance Developing Agency information - both in terms of staff trained to do analysis and availability Capacity of research and evaluation resources - is critical to using performance information in a meaningful fashion. Such capacity can be enhanced by training to develop the competencies and skills of managers to plan strategically, develop robust measures of performance, and analyze what the performance data mean. Performance management literature also states that training is a key factor in improving employees capabilities and enabling employee involvement in achieving performance improvements. Improving the communication of performance information among staff Communicating and stakeholders can facilitate the use of performance information by Performance Information agency managers. Improvements can be achieved through frequent and Frequently and Effectively routine communication, and the use of effective communication tools, such as visual aids. Frequent, regular communication is key for managers to inform staff and other stakeholders of...
