I put aside every question except the very simple one which I take to be at issue, and on this I will endeavour not to be misunderstood. I apprehend my honourable friend s Bill to mean (and if such be the meaning, I give my cordial concurrence to the proposition) that there ought to be, not a wholesale, nor an excessive, but a sensible and considerable addition to that portion of the working-classes--at present almost infinitesimal--which is in possession of the franchise I apprehend that I am correct in saying that those who possess the franchise are less than one-fiflielh of the whole number of...
