

The Pig Who Sang to the Moon: The Emotional World of Farm Animals (Paperback)

By Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson

Random House USA Inc, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 200 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson s groundbreaking bestseller, When Elephants Weep, was the first book since Darwin s time to explore emotions in the animal kingdom, particularly from animals in the wild. Now, he focuses exclusively on the contained world of the farm animal, revealing startling, irrefutable evidence that barnyard creatures have feelings too, even consciousness. Weaving history, literature, anecdotes, scientific studies, and Masson s own vivid experiences observing pigs, cows, sheep, goats, and chickens over the course of five years, this important book at last gives voice, meaning, and dignity to these gentle beasts that are bred to be milked, shorn, butchered, and eaten. Can we ever know what makes an animal happy? Many animal behaviorists say no. But Jeffrey Masson has a different view: An animal is happy if it can live according to its own nature. Farm animals suffer greatly in this regard. Chickens, for instance, like to perch in trees at night, to avoid predators and to nestle with friends. The obvious conclusion: They cannot be happy when confined twenty to a cage. From field and...
